

INSTITUTE of CURRENT WORLD AFFAIRS
established 1925

The Institute of Current World Affairs has advanced American understanding of global cultures and affairs by sending outstanding young professionals abroad to acquire deep knowledge of societies for more than 95 years.

Institute fellows have become some of our country's leading experts in international affairs, thanks to the unique fellowships first designed by founders Charles R. Crane and Walter Rogers.

We continue their tradition with your support.

Make a one-time donation

Donations to the institute directly support fellows in the field. You can help transform fellows' careers and advance our nation's understanding of foreign countries and regions, and globally important issues.

Your tax-deductible donation is vital to helping us continue nurturing the deep understanding future generations will need to ensure America's role in the world is informed by wisdom, foresight and compassion.

Make a secure online donation at icwa.org/donate or contact us at icwa@icwa.org to send a secure wire or ACH.

Set up a recurring donation

Whether it's $5 a month, or $100 a year—any amount helps us continue to support and expand our fellowships. In 2023, we expect to have 5 fellows in the field, and more are on the horizon.

Setting up a recurring donation is easy:

1. Go to www.icwa.org/donate
2. Select "Monthly" or "Annually" in the donation box
3. Fill out the remaining fields

Recurring donations will process automatically and are tax-deductible. We will send a summary of the total at the end of the year.
